most people are still unaware of the new development of the blank debit card. Only a few are already making money with it, but they're keeping their experiences secret.

In January, I received my programmed blank debit card, which allows me to withdraw a maximum of €500 per day for a maximum of 30 days (via loanwestlake@gmail.com).

I'm very happy about this because yesterday I received two new cards and withdrew €1,000.
